A Missive from the Baron and Baroness

Greetings to you all,

Greetings all, it seems that the springtime saved up and hit us all at once! We hope that everyone is safe and well. It is unfortunate that our cousins in Eldern had to postpone their Baronial event. As of now it is rescheduled for August, which puts it close to their second event in October. We ask our good populace to support them the best you can, with your service and attendance. We are excited for the incipient Canton of Haldtree's demo this month and we know the Barony will turn out to enjoy the day and share their skills and experience with this fine energetic group of people. This demo will be in a new location from the others so it will be a great opportunity to bring in new players! June will also be project month, we will be doing silk banner painting, finishing the signs, among other things. It will be a great opportunity to spend time and build our Barony as a group. Stay safe and have fun this Summer, and we look forward to seeing you all out there!

Ever in Your Service,
Ciaran & Branislava
Baron and Baroness of Wiesenfeuer
Lord and Lady of Myrgenfeld & Haldtree

The Barony of Wiesenfeuer

You may have heard about us from a friend, found us on a web search, saw our displays and demos at the Norman medieval Fair or any number of local events or schools. Regardless of how you've found us we're glad you did. The Barony of Wiesenfeuer is a part of an organization called the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). It's an international organization dedicated to the researching and recreating the arts and skills of pre-17th century Europe. The "arts and skills" of Europe, and any people that Europeans had contact with, are far reaching in scope and depth. Arts include everything from making soap or butter to making a catapult or a full set of armor. It includes singing, dancing, calligraphy, weaving, storytelling, playing musical instruments, woodworking, ... the list goes on. Anything that was made or done in the Middle Ages or Renaissance is fair game. Skills would include fighting, fencing, archery, thrown weapons, and all manner of games and talents played and practiced in six hundred years of history.

The SCA is a hands-on participation based way to learn about history. Hit your (armored) friends with rattan sticks, fence like a musketeer or pirate, or learn to shoot a bow like Robin Hood. Learn any number of arts and crafts from people that have developed skills and techniques for making and doing things the way they were centuries ago.

Beyond the competitions and projects, the royalty and ceremonies, the SCA is all about having fun. The Society is a great place to meet people with similar interests, make new friends, and be involved. So come out to an event, go to a meeting, or contact our Hospitaller for more information.

Welcome to Wiesenfeuer! <http://sites.google.com/a/wiesenfeuer.ansteorra.org/wiesenfeuer/>

Youth Combat

Youth combat is for boys and girls age 6 to 15 years. They fight with foam-padded weapons. There are 3 age divisions within the program; 6-9 years, 10-12 years, and 13-15 years. The armor requirements and the strength of blows allowed increase as a child progresses through the levels.

Beginning Equipment for Youth Combat:

Each new youth fighter should wear long pants, a long-sleeve shirt, closed-toe shoes, lightweight gloves and groin protection. A parent, or an adult designated by the parent, needs to be present throughout the practice.

There is some loaner armor, but anything you can provide yourself is helpful. Armor requirements vary by age, but all ages will need a helmet with face guard (such as a hockey or lacrosse helmet) and a gorget (medium-weight leather with 1/2-inch closed-cell padding). Knee and elbow pads are required for the older kids and helpful for the younger. The full armor and weapon requirements, and rules for combat, may be found in the Complete Participants Handbook, which is available on the Kingdom Earl Marshal's web page at <http://marshal.ansteorra.org/armored/>. And of course, feel free to contact your friendly local marshal with any questions!

Officer Reports

Seneschal's Report

I think that the Barony may need to invest in a boat! I know a few members of the populace in Wiesenfeuer and our Incipient Cantons of Myrgenfeld and Haldtree have had issues with flooding, if there is anything we can do to help out just let us know.

Bids are needed for Wiesenfeuer Yule By June 30th. Yule will be held on December 5th in OKC. I need bids for Event Steward/Autocrat and bids for Feast-o-crat. If you are not comfortable submitting a bid with just you, ask around get a buddy and work on the Event or Feast together. Never be afraid to ask for help or advice. There is the autocrat tool box on the web page that is a great place to start. I do need everyone to know and understand if we do not get a bid then Wiesenfeuer Yule will not take place.

Be on the lookout for Baronial projects! The weather has put a serious damper on our outdoor activities but hopefully the monsoon season will end soon. Watch Facebook for more information.

By now everyone should know the Eldern had to cancel their Baronial event due to the massive amount of rain that has fallen in May. It has been rescheduled for August 21-23rd at Camp Graham Bell in TX. All info for the event is the same but the date. There is plenty of time now to make your plans to attend.

June makes my first full year as Seneschal and I'd like to have a deputy to teach the ropes to. I plan on stepping down in 12 months. If you are interested in becoming deputy Seneschal come see me and we will talk. The Barony is currently accepting applications for Chronicler and Rapier Marshal, if you are interested in applying please email your application to me, HE Ciaran & HE Branislava and the Northern Regional Rapier Marshal or Northern Regional Chronicler. Application needs to include a copy of your current membership card and a photo ID. Applications will be accepted up to this months Officers meeting on June 15th.
